

Q: Why the search for already stored satellites takes so long?

A: Probably your geographical position has changed so much between your last save/update, that the settings of the actual satellite are not correct any more. Please refer to the manual!